

Pre Conference Workshop

SAM Study Group on Preventive Medicine

Saturday, October 15, 2011 12:00 p.m.—6:00 p.m.

$150 fee includes course syllabus and refreshments

This session offers an easy way to complete ABFM's MC-FP Part II requirement. At the workshop, diplomats will discuss and complete the 60-question Knowledge Assessment portion of the Preventive Medicine module. The session will be led by Cheri Olson, MD.

- Complete your SAM Knowledge Assessment questions on site
- Review Preventive Medicine through interactive discussions
- Your answers reported directly to ABFM

Participants will receive credit if they are currently eligible and enrolled in the ABFM MC-FP process, haven't previously completed the Preventive Medicine module, haven't completed the current MC-FP Stage, paid the MC-FP fees to the ABFM prior to completing the Clinical Simulation and attended and fully participated in the educational discussion for the entire session.

Participants in MC-FP will be required to pay MC-FP fees in order to complete the Clinical Simulation portion of the SAM module. Participants not in MC-FP who desire to receive CME credit will be required to pay the current SAM fee in order to complete the Clinical Simulation portion of the SAM module and prior to receiving CME credit.

This educational conference is designed to educate and provide a systematic update for clinicians working in the primary care office setting. Interactive and case-based Seminars with the Faculty augment evidence-based lectures presented by physicians from leading medical institutions. Educational objectives for attendees include:

- Provide current office-based approaches to the topics presented
- Improve your ability to diagnose and manage patients who have problems in these areas
- Incorporate evidence-based changes into your practice
